Lesson 1. Compose a letter to yourself informing you on what is going on and to refer to in the future.

Lesson 2. Write a newspaper article about the events.

Lesson 3. Create a speech persuading others to prevent the spread of any further illness.

Lesson 4. Design a leaflet about Coronavirus and how to combat it.

Introduction

Lesson 5. Construct your own Time Capsule
Introduction

In your lifetime, there have been very few occasions where a lock down has had to be enforced.

The Coronavirus has prompted the vast majority of Europe to close their borders including: Italy, France and Spain (who have implemented a full state lock down).

We are living through history. In years to come people will look back on this - it may be even taught in schools!

This capsule will contain activities and tasks to produce your account of COVID-19. They can be then sealed away and in many years to come, you or anyone else who opens your time capsule will be able to delve into the world of what it is like to live through this unusual time.
Lesson 2: Planning your article

Starter: Read the article on the link below.

Task: List the features of a news article based on what you have seen in your Home Learning Book.

In your Home Learning Books, create your plan to help you with your writing – it will encourage you to structure it effectively.

What is your headline going to be, how are you going to introduce your article, etc?

List your ideas of what you are going to write.

Examples of some subheadings below:

- How did it begin?
- How is it affecting us?
- What is Coronavirus?
- What are the symptoms?
- What next?
CORONAVIRUS is the hot topic right now. Everyone is talking about it, but what do we know about it? Here, we write about what it is and what you need to know.

What is Coronavirus?
Coronavirus, also known as Covid-19, is a virus that started in Wuhan, China. It later...
